

Web Page 2009

The entry must be sent to the Event Coordinator, not to Registration, by March 6, 2009. The coordinator's address is on the NTLTC website (www.ntltc.org). Submission is sent electronically.

Purpose: To develop creative and technical talents by the creation of a Web site on the Internet.

Process:

- Create a web site on the Internet.
- Send an e-mail to the Web Page Coordinator that contains name(s), church name, church number, convention site, grade(s), and complete URL for the site with a list of pages or URLs within the site that are to be judged.
- Email address for submission and any further submission instructions may be found on the Preconvention Event page on the NTLTC website: www.ntltc.org.
- The entry must be submitted on or before March 6, 2009.

Rules:

1. The entry must reflect the current year's LTC theme.
2. The site shall be of a format that is generally accessible to most users of the Internet. Each site may consist of one or more pages with links from the site to the individual pages.
3. Sites may be linked, but the participant must specify exactly which URLs are to be judged.
4. Adult assistance shall be limited to advice and supervision. The site shall be the work of the participants only.
5. A maximum of three students may work on an entry.
6. There will be five grade levels in this event: Grades 3-4, 5-6, 7-8, 9-10, 11-12

Awards:

Ratings and awards of gold, silver, bronze, or honorable mention will be given according to the judging criteria listed.

Judging Criteria:

- Intuitive – Does everything work as it appears it should - intuitively?
- Copyright Laws Observed
- Credit Given to Authors
- Impact

Use of Materials Submitted to NTLTC

Ownership of work submitted to NTLTC as a part of NTLTC events, remains the property of the submitter. The participant authorizes the use of that material by the NTLTC Board of Directors in any way the Board may deem appropriate. This may include but is not limited to promotion, fund-raising, or training for the purpose of Christian leadership training of youth.
